

Draft version of intensive summer school

Dates: 10-16 June 2018 (6 days)

Place: Uppsala University

Day	Time	Tasks	Comments
1st day	All day	Arrival of participants, registration at hotels. Team building
2nd day	9.00-9.30	Welcome. Presentation of the program of school
	9.30-11.00	Getting to know each other
	11.00-13.00	Light lunch	Buffet lunch
	13.00-14.00	Presentation of the summer school programme
	14.00-16.30	Panel Discussion: Role of journalism and media in society	Representative from each partner on panel. Students to break into assigned groups to critically discuss the theme of media and democracy
	16.30-17.00	Summary of students' results	Group presentations of findings
	17.00-18.00	Presentation: News and its role in society
	18.00-19.00	Summary of results of second day and what is ahead
	19.00-21.00	Welcome dinner
3rd day	9.00-13.00	Presentation: Mass media and contemporary armed conflict	Students to break into assigned groups to critically discuss the theme of the obstacles and constraints faced by journalists in covering armed conflicts
	13.00-14.00	Light lunch	Buffet lunch
	14.00-14.45	Summary of students' results	Group presentations of findings
	14.45-16.30	Panel Discussion: Is paranoia our best protection from an enemy? National reflections on risk and threat perception.	Representative from each partner on panel.
	16.30-18.00	Summary of results of third day and what is ahead
	18.30-20.00	Creative evening: role play and team building	Mixed student groups are given assignments that require teamwork and problem solving skills to complete
4th day	9.00-12.30	Presentation: War journalism	Students to break into assigned groups to critically discuss the theme of war journalism

	12.30-13.30	Light lunch	Buffet lunch
	13.30-14.15	Summary of students' results	Group presentations of findings
	14.15-19.00	Visiting relevant institutions of interest in Stockholm	To visit one to two institutions for an insight into the more practical aspects of war and peace journalism (CBSS or FBA)
5th day	9.00-9.45	Introduction and preparation for the role playing scenario
	9:45-13.00	Role playing exercise based upon a fictional conflict scenario	Students to break into assigned groups to engage in the assigned roles for the scenario exercise
	13.00-14.00	Light lunch	Buffet lunch
	14.00-15.00	Presentation: Guest lecturer on practical aspects of war and peace journalism from an NGO's perspective
	15.00-17.00	Sum up of the summer school and presentation of certificates to students
	17.00-19.00	Farewell dinner
6th day	9.00-16.00	Participants return to home destinations	